5. Is this course designed for a specific group? No
   Who?

6. Catalog Description: [ ] Now in Print, or [X] Proposed Below:
   This course offers a topical examination of American cultural and social history between the Revolution and the Civil War. Topics include the growth and development of the nation's market economy, slavery and abolition, changes in family life, evolving understandings of democracy and republicanism, and the rise of popular literature, amusements, and religion. Pre-requisite Eng 1010 and Hist 1700. 3 lecture hours per week.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   Increasing demand for upper-division History courses, DSC's enhanced mission as a four-year institution, and the faculty effort to create a baccalaureate degree in History and add to professional development all underscore the need for this course and other upper-level history offerings.
