They will also understand FCC requirements for radio staff member in areas including indecency programming and political advertising. This course is intended for general students and is necessary to be on the air on the campus radio station.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   This is a request to delete the existing Comm 1560 course, which is titled "Beginning Radio Production." We are adding a sophomore-level practicum course, Comm 2370, that will have the same title. We do not need two lower-division radio production courses, so we wish to drop this one in favor of the new one.
