6. Catalog Description: square box Now in Print, or X Proposed Below:
   Required of English majors pursuing an emphasis in Literary Studies, and recommended for others interested in literature. Students will explore in depth aspects of the novel, such as plot, theme, character, setting, etc. Novels will be selected according to time, place, period, or theme. Students will be introduced to research and criticism as well as to the texts themselves. The course is also designed to expand the student’s critical reading and writing skills. Students will write several critical assignments and conduct a major research project. 3 lecture hours per week.
7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   We need to expand our upper-division course offerings to meet the needs of our majors. A Genre Studies course that is devoted to the novel is an important step toward aligning our curriculum with other institutional offerings, while still fulfilling the goals of our current Genre Studies course description.
8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes
