   Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☑ Proposed Below:

   For students whose test entrance exam score is in the range of 18 or lower. This course teaches the basics of paragraph and essay organization and development, as well as critical thinking, while preparing students to enter English 1010. Assignments, activities and tests relate to writing and critical reading skills. Successful students will be able to write structured, developed and coherent paragraphs and essays which are relatively free of mechanical errors. They will also edit and proofread their work, as well as analyze the work of others in small and large groups. Students with entrance scores of 15 or lower will be required to enroll in an English lab (ENGL 0995). Prerequisite: Entrance exam of 18 or lower. 3 lecture hours per week.

   7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):

   Course description change. ENGL 0991 number was changed to ENGL 0995. This course description reflects that number change.
