3. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes  Who? Theater Majors

4. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☒ Proposed Below:
   This senior capstone course requires students to demonstrate mastery of their studies within the Theater Degree curriculum by engaging in the successful performance of a work-related project and corollary research paper, artistic creation, and/or related portfolio. The intent is to allow the student an opportunity to illustrate his/her competency in theater skills as well as being able to apply those skills effectively. Instructor permission required. 3 lecture hours per week.

5. Course justification (attach sheet(s) if needed):
   This course gives students the opportunity to assimilate and apply concepts and skills acquired in their undergraduate theatre experience in a capstone project. The experience is intended to summarize student learning for the benefit of the student and also create assessment data for program development.
