6. Catalog Description:
   ☐ Now in Print, or ☒ Proposed Below:
   Introduces students to the methods, practices, and theories of integrated, interdisciplinary study. Students collaborate on problem-solving projects in which they apply integrative approaches to common themes, ideas, issues, and events in various disciplines. Students also explore the conceptual basis of each of their two emphasis area disciplines. Includes academic reading, writing, and critical thinking activities. Each student also completes an academic plan that articulates his or her intentions for the senior capstone project and the projected path to completing the Integrated Studies degree. 3 lecture hours per week.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   Number change/description change/credit change. The depth and amount of concepts and information covered requires that the course be designated as upper-division and increased to 3 credit hours.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? No
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No
    If yes, which G.E. area?
