5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes
   Who: Integrated Studies majors

6. Catalog Description:
   This course provides the culminating experience in the degree. Students will select a topic, theme, issue, or problem and relate their two areas of concentration through careful analysis and creative synthesis, producing a major project that exhibits skill in interdisciplinary understanding as it applies their coursework from the Integrated Studies core to their learning in the disciplines. Students will present their research results in a public forum. May be repeated once for 6 total credits. (3 lecture hours per week)

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   Changes: "May be repeated once for 6 total credits"
   Allows a student the option to devote more time to the senior project. Additional 3 credits would count toward upper-division electives.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No
   If yes, which G.E. area?
   If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
