5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes  Who? Students accepted into the BSN program

6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☐ Proposed Below:
   This course prepares the baccalaureate student to function within the scope of professional nursing practice in the care of individuals, families, and groups in the community. In this course emphasis is placed on family assessment, community assessment, health promotion, health maintenance, and disease prevention. The past, present and future community service trends are explored and analyzed. Purchase of electronic access is required to navigate this online course.
   Prerequisites: NURS 3100, NURS 3200, BIOL 4400 and acceptance into the BSN program. Corequisite: NURS 4025.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   Students have not understood the need to purchase the electronic access for the course. In addition, many students are not from the local area, which means they do not buy their books through the campus bookstore where the course text bundled with the electronic access is available. The course syllabus does explain the need for the textbook and electronic access, but this seems to be overlooked.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
