6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☑ Proposed Below:
   For music majors emphasizing piano instruction and piano teachers who wish to improve their craft. Designed to prepare qualified pianists to teach piano effectively and to acquaint them with new materials and techniques from beginning to intermediate levels. Principles taught include: rhythm, technique, sight-reading, harmonization, improvisation, transposition, music technology, practice skills, private and group lesson pedagogies, and learning styles. This course is the first of two in a series. 2 lecture hours per week.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   Offered as part of music curriculum at all Utah colleges and universities.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired? The library has acquired several dozen books on piano pedagogy and performance during the past year. Also, many piano scores of the major composers have been ordered and will be acquired by the end of this semester. The music department also has a multi-year plan for getting our library resources up to NASM standards.

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No
    If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
