5. Is this course designed for a specific group? No

6. Catalog Description: ☑ Now in Print, or ☐ Proposed Below:
   A required class for students with an emphasis in art, and other students interested in drawing. Stresses creativity, the fundamentals of image-based drawing and composition. Various techniques with black and white, and color media will be investigated. Includes lectures, demonstrations, and studio practice labs. By the end of this course, students should have an understanding of the elements of composition, and have developed basic drawing skills. Is a prerequisite to Art 2110. Fees required. 6 lab hours per week.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   Change activity type from LEC to LBC; contact time increase from 3 hrs to 6 contact hours per week to bring this course up to standard contact hours with other 4-year institution studio offerings; fee increase to accommodate added still-life materials and charcoal and pastels for mixed-media assignments; course description change to reflect these changes.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes
