5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes  Who? ESOL students

6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☑ Proposed Below:

   This course is designed for students whose native language is other than English. It introduces concepts of pronunciation, intonation, stress, and English phonics. Explores uses of simple statements, questions, and commands. It will introduce students to short academic lectures, notetaking, and vocabulary development. Students will practice listening and speaking with other students, the instructor, and interactive software and recording equipment.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):

   In order to increase the presence of International Students on campus, we need a full-complement of courses for ESOL students in order to satisfy the requirements for enrollment and visa eligibility.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No  If not, how are those resources to be acquired? We will propose in our next budget cycle a comprehensive list of materials which need to be added to the library in order to best serve these students and courses.

9. Are technical and other resources available? No  If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

   We will propose in our next budget cycle a comprehensive list of technology materials and equipment which need to be added to our department in order to best serve these students and courses.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No  If yes, which G.E. area?  If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
