5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes [ ] No [x] Who? ESOL students

6. Catalog Description: [ ] Now in Print, or [x] Proposed Below:
   This course is designed to help ESOL students further develop listening and conversation skills. This course will expand on the use of simple statements, questions, and commands on familiar topics as well as academic lectures and conversations. Students will listen to short lectures, take notes, and discuss. Students will work with the instructor, small groups, or with technology to practice the skills presented in this course.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   In order to increase the presence of International Students on campus, we need a full complement of courses for ESOL students in order to satisfy the requirements for enrollment and visa eligibility.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes [ ] No [x] If not, how are those resources to be acquired? We will propose in our next budget cycle a comprehensive list of materials which need to be added to the library in order to best serve these students and courses.

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes [ ] No [x] If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
   We will propose in our next budget cycle a comprehensive list of technology materials and equipment which need to be added to our department in order to best serve these students and courses.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? Yes [ ] No [x] If yes, which G.E. area? [ ] If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No [x]
