   - Who? ESOL students

6. Catalog Description: ☒ Now in Print, or □ Proposed Below:
   - This course is designed to for ESOL students to strengthen and enrich skills in listening and conversation. Students will work on more academic listening skills such as listening for important information, note taking in the lecture setting, and giving and receiving oral instructions. Emphasis is placed on active participation in class and in small group settings designed for conversation practice.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):

   In order to increase the presence of International Students on campus, we need a full-complement of courses for ESOL students in order to satisfy the requirements for enrollment and visa eligibility.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No
   - If not, how are those resources to be acquired? We will propose in our next budget cycle a comprehensive list of materials which need to be added to the library in order to best serve these students and courses.

9. Are technical and other resources available? No
   - If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
   - We will propose in our next budget cycle a comprehensive list of technology materials and equipment which need to be added to our department in order to best serve these students and courses.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No
    - If yes, which G.E. area?
    - If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No
