5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes
   Who? Pre-medical and other biology majors wanting more experience in human dissection

6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☒ Proposed Below:

   This course is for students who want more experience in human dissection. Students will be instructed in the maintenance, dissection, and demonstration of the human cadaver. Students are required to perform six hours per week of dissection. Prerequisite: BIOL 2320/2325 and instructor permission. Enrollment is limited.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):

   This course is currently being offered under a BIOL 4810 (Independent Study) format. However, it is different from the typical independent study course in biology and the cadaver practicum requires its own number designation. It is helpful to have these students dissecting and preparing the cadavers for use in the lower-division human anatomy courses while they gain more experience in human dissection.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No
    If yes, which G.E. area?
    If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes
