COURSE OUTLINE:

Weekly 30-minute private session (time to be determined by student and instructor). Each session will include approximately 15-minute review/performance of the previous week's material then 15-minutes of new material.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- To provide musical enrichment
- To develop and advance selected woodwind skills

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Any student unable to attend a scheduled lesson is required to notify the instructor at least one day in advance excepting emergencies. Otherwise, the student forfeits the right to make up that lesson. Any student missing 4 or more lessons without explanation will automatically receive an "F" for the semester.

GRADING POLICY:

The final grade will be based on preparation for lessons and on attendance (see above item).

MUSIC/TEXT BOOK REQUIREMENTS:

It is expected that the student will provide the method books that are determined by the instructor to best suit the level of the student. The instructor will make an effort to recommend books that are locally available and reasonably priced.

DISABILITIES:

If you are a student with a medical, psychological, or learning disability or think you might have a disability and would like accommodations, contact the Disability Resource Center (652-7516) in the Student Services Center Room 201. The Disability Resource Center will determine eligibility based on your professional documentation and determine the appropriate accommodations related to your disability.
