

Class: Basic Guitar Improvisation

MUS 1820 01

Instructor: Lisle Crowley

Time: Tu Th 2:00 PM

Class Description:

This class will teach the student to improvise in many different musical situations. To do this the student will learn several different scales, modes, and arpeggios. The student will also learn music theory to recognize what scale to use over different chord progressions.

Class Goals:

By the end of the semester the student will be able to recognize a chord progression and decide what scale or arpeggio would be appropriate to use and using phrasing and melodic structure be able to improvise over most chord progressions.

Grading Policy:

Student's grades will be determined by attendance, improvising quizzes and the final. The final will be held Dec 7.

"If you are a student with a physical or mental impairment and would like to request accommodations, please contact the Disability Resource Center (652-7516) in Room 201 of the Student Services Center. The Disability Resource Center will determine your eligibility for services based upon complete professional documentation. If you are deemed eligible, the Disability Resource Center will further evaluate the effectiveness of your accommodation requests and will authorize reasonable accommodations that are appropriate for your disability."