RAGING RED AUDITIONS – TONIGHT!
Raging Red, DSU’s Song and Dance Performance Team, is auditioning for Spring 2016 on Thursday, January 14th at 7pm in the North Instructional Building Room 126. Come prepared to learn a dance combination and to sing three songs in different styles unaccompanied. Selected members of this cast will travel to Japan in May 2016! Raging Red is a two credit class that meets daily from 7-8:50am. As part of the recruiting tool for DSU, we travel and perform for schools all over Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico. We have travelled to China 3 times and are looking forward to traveling to Japan in May 2016. Email mwebb@dixie.edu or call Merrilee Webb at 435-879-4255 with questions.

MARTIN LUTHER KING Jr. DAY!
The Office of the President, the Multicultural-Diversity Center and the Black Student Union invites you to join in the fun!
On Monday, January 18th the Athletic Department invites you to the men’s and women’s basketball games and they’ll provide a free shirt (while supplies last), if you’ll donate a non-perishable food item. All items will be donated to the DSU Student Food Pantry.
- Women’s Game 2:00pm in the Burns Arena
- Men’s Game 4:30pm in the Burns Arena

Tuesday, January 19th at 12:00 noon. We will host the second annual MLK celebration in the Gardner Center Living Room. Our keynote speaker will be Pastor France Davis who is currently on the Utah Board of Regents, a Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church in Salt Lake City, he holds numerous degrees from multiple institutions across the country, and he marched with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. His words will be inspiring and uplifting...you definitely don't want to miss it!

Tuesday, January 19th at 3:00 p.m. The Multicultural-Diversity Center and Black Student Union will host a beautification project. We will be planting a memory garden around the MLK light post near the Gardner Center Patio. We need students, staff and faculty to come and help.

If you have a project you are interested in doing during the week, please let the MCDC know so we can offer support in helping your area reach its goal during the national days of service. If you would like a box to collect non-perishable food items in your building or department, please feel free to respond to this email, to insure that we have one ready for your area.

SELF-PROTECTION COURSE
This comprehensive course is now open to men and women 15 years and older who want to be safer in life. This course teaches empowerment, prevention, and restorative/healing concepts. The course is called Self-Protection rather than self-defense because it is holistic in its approach. The course is designed to be biopsychosocial; strengthening cognitive awareness, social effectiveness, and physical self-defense. The Self-Protection course awakens awareness, self-confidence, a personal commitment to healthy boundaries, and trust in one’s physical abilities. The course also covers the effects of assault on a person’s psychology, development, and the healing process. Strategies for avoiding dangerous situations and self-defense tactics and techniques are taught, and each student will have the option to experience two simulated fights. Tuesdays 5:30-8:10 p.m. OR Wednesday 1:00-3:40 p.m. FCS 2410-50 CRN 27912 and co-requisite lab FSC 2415-50 CRN 27917 OR FCS 2410-01 CRN 27986 and co-requisite lab FCS 2415-01 CRN 27987.
