STOPLIGHT KARAOKE NIGHT TONIGHT!
Tonight at 7:30 PM in the Gardner Building Ballroom
This stoplight-themed event will change karaoke as you know it. DSUSA encourages all of the students who attend this wild night of song to dress according to their relationship status! Dress in green if you’re single, yellow if it's complicated, and red if you’re off the dating market. Regardless of whether you’re single, be ready to mingle and sing your heart out.

SELF-PROTECTION COURSE
This comprehensive course is now open to men and women 15 years and older who want to be safer in life. This course teaches empowerment, prevention, and restorative/healing concepts. The course is called Self-Protection rather than self-defense because it is holistic in its approach. The course is designed to be biopsychosocial; strengthening cognitive awareness, social effectiveness, and physical self-defense. The Self-Protection course awakens awareness, self-confidence, a personal commitment to healthy boundaries, and trust in one’s physical abilities. The course also covers the effects of assault on a person’s psychology, development, and the healing process. Strategies for avoiding dangerous situations and self-defense tactics and techniques are taught, and each student will have the option to experience two simulated fights. Tuesdays 5:30-8:10 p.m. OR Wednesday 1:00-3:40 p.m. FCS 2410-50 CRN 27912 and co-requisite lab FSC 2415-50 CRN 27917 OR FCS 2410-01 CRN 27986 and co-requisite lab FCS 2415-01 CRN 27987.
