SELF-PROTECTION COURSE

This comprehensive course is now open to men and women 15 years and older who want to be safer in life. This course teaches empowerment, prevention, and restorative/healing concepts. The course is called Self-Protection rather than self-defense because it is holistic in its approach. The course is designed to be biopsychosocial; strengthening cognitive awareness, social effectiveness, and physical self-defense.

The Self-Protection course awakens awareness, self-confidence, a personal commitment to healthy boundaries, and trust in one’s physical abilities. The course also covers the effects of assault on a person's psychology, development, and the healing process. Strategies for avoiding dangerous situations and self-defense tactics and techniques are taught, and each student will have the option to experience two simulated fights. Tuesdays 5:30-8:10 p.m. OR Wednesdays 1:00-3:40 p.m.

FCS 2410-50 CRN 27912 and co-requisite lab FSC 2415-50 CRN 27917 OR FCS 2410-01 CRN 27986 and co-requisite lab FCS 2415-01 CRN 27987.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE PREVENTION TRAINING

The Dixie State University (DSU) Office of Title IX Clery Act & Compliance exists to educate and prevent gender inequity, sexual discrimination, sexual harassment, sexual abuse, and sexual assault. You can complete an online complaint form at: https://www.dixie.edu/titleixcleryact/incident_report_form.php. We are also excited to announce that students will soon be able to receive on-line training regarding healthy relationships, and how to protect yourself or deter possible incidences of sexual assault. Look for a SAFE COLLEGES invitation coming to you in the next few weeks. If you feel your rights have been violated, if you witness any of the aforementioned incidences, or if someone you know has been a victim of sexual assault, please contact Cindy Cole in the Burns North building or by calling 435-652-7731.
