Congratulations! You've been accepted!

You might be wondering what comes next? Below is a checklist of reminders and suggestions for preparing to attend DSC. Simply check off each step as you complete it to keep track of your status.

1

Apply for Financial Aid & Scholarships

dixie.edu/financial

Financial Aid: Apply online for federal financial aid to be eligible for grants, loans, or work study opportunities at fafsa.ed.gov

Scholarships: Utah residents are automatically considered for academic scholarships upon successful admission to the college. Non-resident students must submit an online scholarship application. Information and applications for non-residents and additional scholarships (talent, leadership, multi-cultural, etc.) can be found at dixie.edu/financial/scholarships/

Questions? Office of Financial Assistance (435) 652-7575 or finaid@dixie.edu

2

Find a Place To Live

dixie.edu/housing

The housing office can assist you in finding a place to live on-campus while attending Dixie. For off-campus housing information, refer to the housing website.

Questions? Housing Office (435) 652-7570

3

Attend A&R

dixie.edu/oand

All new freshman students must register for and complete an Advisement and Registration (A&R) session. At A&R you will meet fellow students, become familiar with campus, register for classes, receive academic advising, and get your student I.D. card (Dixie One Card). Free lunch included!

Please note: by attending A&R you can skip steps 4, 5 and 6 as these are fulfilled at A&R.

Questions? Academic Advisement Center (435) 652-7690

4

Academic Advising

dixie.edu/advisement

Meet with an academic advisor who will help tailor your class schedule to your educational goals and make sure you're on track for graduation.

Questions? Academic Advisement Center (435) 652-7690

5

Register For Classes

go.dixie.edu/mydixie

After speaking with an academic advisor or reviewing the degree requirements for your selected program of study, you should register for classes.

Questions? Registrar's Office (435) 652-7702

6

Get Your Student I.D. (Dixie One Card)

You can have your picture taken at the Registrar's Office for your I.D. card. Look for your Dixie One Card to arrive in the mail; this will be your student I.D. card.

Questions? Business Office (435) 652-7603

Complete

7

Buy Your Books

bookstore.dixie.edu

The Dixie State Bookstore makes available all class textbooks and will help you get the required educational supplies you need. You can also find DSC goodies, memorabilia, and more!

Questions? Bookstore (435) 652-7644

Complete

8

Dmail

go.dixie.edu/dmail

Upon being admitted, you will automatically be assigned a Dmail (Dixie Email) account. This serves as the official form of communication between you and Dixie State College. Your Dmail account information can be found in your acceptance letter. Check your Dmail regularly in order to stay on top of what is happening at Dixie State.

Questions or help? Student Helpdesk (435) 652-7951 or helpdesk@dixie.edu

Complete

9

Pay Your Tuition

go.dixie.edu/mydixie

Payment deadlines are critical. To avoid late fees, tuition is due by the second week of classes each semester. Please make all payment arrangements before the payment deadline. Also note, if you are receiving financial aid or scholarship assistance, you will need to make up any difference in tuition.

You can pay your tuition online by logging into myDixie, or you can pay at the Cashier's Office.

Questions? Cashier's Office (435) 652-7605

Complete

10

Get a Parking Permit

dixie.edu/publicsafety

Parking permits may be purchased at the Security Office. You'll need to have your license plate number with you when purchasing a permit. During the first week of the semester, campus security has tables set up near the bookstore where you can also purchase a permit.

Questions? Campus Security (435) 652-7515

Complete

"I am a Dixie Man through and through. From the small classes to passionate professors, Dixie provides the type of learning environment that I can thrive in. I am only 90 minutes away from home, and living so close, I received the Good Neighbor scholarship that is helping me pay for school."

Greg
Las Vegas, NV

"Join the Storm at Dixie!"

Morgan
Lehi, UT

"The intramural sports programs are amazing! In between classes, I can play ball and there is always someone around in the SAC (Student Activities Center) so it is easy to make friends and meet people. Dixie is the place to be!"

Oshane
Bountiful, UT

"I have made so many friends and memories in my time at Dixie. I love my teachers, and the classes are all hands on deck. As a broadcasting major, that is the best way to learn. I <3 Dixie State."

Bree
Centerville, UT
