5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes Who? For Theatre/Fine Art majors depth focus and other theatre students needing an elective credit.

6. Catalog Description: Now in Print, or Proposed Below:
   The course will cover the evolution of world costumes & clothing from 4000 B.C. to the present as it reflects on the social-cultural and socioeconomic aspects of the times, the individual garment characteristics of each period, and its application to costume design. 3 lecture hours per week.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   This course will serve as the basis for costume history enabling the students to research & produce historically accurate garments for the stage. The Theatre Department’s growth in its degree has increased the need to offer a survey of historic costumes and would greatly enrich the major.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes
