6. Catalog Description:  ☐ Now in Print, or ☒ Proposed Below:

   Required of English majors pursuing an emphasis in Literary Studies, and recommended for others interested in literature. Students will explore significant works of twentieth-century Western American literature. Specific topics and approaches may vary according to instructor expertise. Students will write several critical assignments and conduct a major research project. 3 lecture hours per week.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):

   We need to expand our upper-division course offerings to meet the needs of our majors. A Period/Topics course that is devoted to Western American literature is an important step toward aligning our curriculum with other institutional offerings, while still fulfilling the needs of our department.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change?  Yes  If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available?  No  If not, how are these resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum:  Would the course fill a G.E. requirement?  No  If yes, which G.E. area?  If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit?  Yes
