5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes
   Potential art majors and other students seeking upper division elective credits.

6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☒ Proposed Below:
   For students who are interested in a more detailed study of Medieval European art. This course will begin with the fall of the Roman Empire and the development of early Christian art at the end of the fourth century and trace the development and progression of Byzantine, Insular, Romanesque and Gothic art and the historical and religious contexts of these periods. Prerequisite: ARTH 2710, 2720, or instructor permission. 3 lecture hours per week.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   While all art programs in Utah offer an art history survey course (ARTH 2710 and ARTH 2720 at DSC), other programs offer elective art history courses that focus on specific time periods or media. At present, DSC does not offer any art history electives and this course would begin to rectify that imbalance. Students in various baccalaureate programs need upper division elective courses.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No
    If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
