5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes  Who? Potential art majors and other students seeking upper division elective credits.

6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☒ Proposed Below:
   For students who are interested in a more detailed study of nineteenth century art. This course will begin with David and the development of Neoclassicism at the end of the eighteenth century and trace the development and progression of Romanticism, Realism, Impressionism, Post Impressionism, Arts and Crafts, Art Nouveau, and Symbolism. This course will also explore the historical and literary context of nineteenth century art. Prerequisite: ARTH 2710, 2720, or instructor permission. 3 lecture hours per week.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   While all art programs in Utah offer an art history survey course (ARTH 2710 and ARTH 2720 at DSC), other programs offer elective art history courses that focus on specific time periods or media. At present, DSC does not offer any art history electives and this course would begin to rectify that imbalance. Students in various baccalaureate programs need upper division elective courses.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes  If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes  If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No  If yes, which G.E. area?  If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
