   Explanation of Fees:

5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes ☑ Who? Students whose native languages are other than English.

6. Catalog Description: ☑ Now in Print, or ☐ Proposed Below:
   This course is designed to help students prepare for communication in academic settings. This course will introduce listening, speaking, and note-taking strategies and skills in academia. Students will: (1) listen to college lectures in authentic lecture settings; (2) learn vocabulary which students are most likely to encounter in academia. Students will work with the instructor, in small groups, or with technology to practice the skills presented in this course.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   (1) Course name changed; (2) pre-requisite changed; (3) credit- and contact-hour changed; and (4) course description changed.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No ☐ If not, how are those resources to be acquired? In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course.

9. Are technical and other resources available? No ☐ If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
   In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course. In addition, it is hoped that this course will be self-sustaining based on enrollment costs and maybe an additional fee to be determined later.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No ☐ If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No ☑

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
