Explanation of Fees:

5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes ☑
   Who? Students whose native languages are other than English.

6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☑ Proposed Below:
   This course is designed to give students a foundation in listening comprehension and conversation. The course will help students: (1) learn simple statements, questions, and commands of familiar topics; (2) progress to understanding simple conversational English. In addition, the course will offer all-skills language practice in listening, speaking, reading, writing and pronunciation.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   In order to attract a wider pool of ESOL students, this course is proposed to help both adults immigrants and students who have extremely limited English proficiency gain the foundations related to English conversation. This way will too serve the community.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No ☐ If not, how are those resources to be acquired? In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course.

9. Are technical and other resources available? No ☐ If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
   In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course. In addition, it is hoped that this course will be self-sustaining based on enrollment costs and maybe an additional fee to be determined later.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No ☐ If yes, which G.E. area?
    If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
