5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes
   Who? Students whose native languages are other than English.

6. Catalog Description: ☑ Now in Print, or ☐ Proposed Below:
   This course is designed for students who have extremely limited English proficiency as indicated by TOEFL iBT writing scores of 8 or below. It will introduce the foundations of concepts related to developing writing skills in academic settings. It will introduce students to skills necessary to develop coherency and fluency in writing by focusing on sentences, responses to readings, vocabulary development, and minimal technical accuracy.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   (1) Course name changed; (2) pre-requisite changed; (3) credit-hour changed; and (4) course description changed.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired? In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course.

9. Are technical and other resources available? No
   If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
   In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course. In addition, it is hoped that this course will be self-sustaining based on enrollment costs and maybe an additional fee to be determined later.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No
    If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
