5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes □ No □
   Who? Students whose native languages are other than English.

6. Catalog Description: □ Now in Print, □ Proposed Below:
   This course focuses on a basic foundation in listening comprehension skills in academic settings. The course will help students develop a wide range of listening, speaking, and note-taking strategies and skills while listening to college lectures. In addition, the course will introduce students vocabulary which they are most likely to encounter in academic contexts. Students will work with the instructor, in small groups, or with technology to practice the skills presented in this course.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   (1) Course name changed; (2) pre-requisite changed; (3) credit- and contact-hour changed; and (4) course description changed.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No □ If not, how are those resources to be acquired? In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course.

9. Are technical and other resources available? No □ If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
   In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course. In addition, it is hoped that this course will be self-sustaining based on enrollment costs and maybe an additional fee to be determined later.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No □ If yes, which G.E. area?
    If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No □

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
