5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes Who? Students whose native languages are other than English.
   No

6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☒ Proposed Below:
   This course is designed to help students: (1) build general English language proficiency; (2) apply these skills for success in daily life, the community, and work. In addition, the course will offer students guided conversations within carefully structured grammatical frameworks and give students opportunities to practice language skills in listening, speaking, reading, writing and pronunciation.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   In order to attract a wider pool of ESOL students, this course is proposed to help both adults immigrants and students who have extremely limited English proficiency gain the foundations related to English conversation. This way will too serve the community.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No If not, how are those resources to be acquired? In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course.

9. Are technical and other resources available? No If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
   In the next budget cycle, I wil be proposing materials which will support this course. In addition, it is hoped that this course will be self-sustaining based on enrollment costs and maybe an additional fee to be determined later.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
