   5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes  Who? Students whose native languages are other than English.

   6. Catalog Description: ☐ Now in Print, or ☑ Proposed Below:

   This course is designed to help students gain intermediate writing skills in academic contexts. This course will focus on writing well-developed short paragraphs with sentence variety, fluency, intermediate vocabulary, and standard conventions of English. Students will be exposed to the writing process and will be expected to produce pre-writing activities, drafts, revisions, in addition to final drafts of academic writing.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):
   (1) Course name changed; (2) pre-requisite changed; (3) credit-hour changed; and (4) course description changed.

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No  If not, how are those resources to be acquired? In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course.

9. Are technical and other resources available? No  If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

   In the next budget cycle, I will be proposing materials which will support this course. In addition, it is hoped that this course will be self-sustaining based on enrollment costs and maybe an additional fee to be determined later.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No  If yes, which G.E. area? If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? No

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
