Catalog Description: For individual Media Studies majors with advanced standing who wish to pursue a specific focus of study related to their degree emphasis and/or research interest not otherwise available in the current Media Studies curriculum. Students are closely supervised by appropriate faculty in the design and successful completion of the course. The course is dependent upon a formal contractual arrangement with the faculty member that is submitted at the beginning of the semester in which coursework is undertaken, and is contingent upon the Department Chair's approval. Students meet with the faculty mentor each week and provide progress reports for feedback. Students are required meet the college requirement of 45 hours of work per credit. Variable credit 1.0 - 3.0. Repeatable up to 3 credits. Prerequisites: media studies major and instructor permission. FA, SP.

Course Rotation:
Fall (every)
Spring (every)
Justification for course/change: This course was created to align Media Studies with Communication Studies. Currently, there is a COMM 4890R Directed Study course, but not the equivalent for Media Studies.
