Catalog Description
Fulfills General Education Social and Behavioral Sciences and Global and Cultural Perspectives requirement. An introduction to cultural anthropology. This course examines how the concept of culture allows students to understand similarities and differences in behavior and values in human societies. Human behavior varies widely over time and space, which will be explored by focusing on different cultures always making comparisons that will help students to better understand their own culture. SP.

Course Rotation:
Spring (every)

Justification for course/change:
Although Anthropology is a major field in social and behavioral sciences, we currently offer only ANTH 1000, Introduction to Anthropology. Addition of ANTH 1010 will serve to expand the basic offerings in Anthropology and will provide students from all majors with another option to enhance their cultural understanding of human societies.

Library Resources Adequate: Yes
Tech Resources Adequate: Yes
