May 9-June 9, 2015 in Antigua Guatemala

The Foreign Languages Department is sponsoring a 31-day course in Guatemala. Open to all DSU students, this study abroad course is loaded with academic, service and cultural activities. Participants will have the opportunity to live with a Guatemalan family, engage in service learning projects, and take a course with direct equivalencies to a beginning or intermediate course at DSU.

Earn three college credits

- Participate in service projects
- Improve your conversation skills
- Visit Atitlan Lake, Monterico Beach, Panajachel.

Antigua Guatemala is an outstanding example of Spanish colonial architecture. Most of its buildings date from 16 and 17 Centuries. Visitors describe the experience as stepping back into the past.

Point of Contact

Dr. Luis E. Arevalo 435-652-7877 or arevalo@dixie.edu

Cost of the program: 1565.00 dollars.

This amount covers homestays: room and board; three weekend excursions, weekly activities, one hour of daily conversation with native-Spanish tutors, and travel insurance.

This fee does not cover DSU credits, weekend meals, airfare US-Guatemala, entry tax or personal expenses.

Students interested in participating in this study abroad program must enroll in SPAN 2991 Seminar in Spanish: Guatemalan Culture, Service and Conversation for summer 2015.

Schedule of payments

March 15th—deadline for 565.00 deposit.
March 30th—remaining $1000.00.
April 15th—Proof of purchase of roundtrip airline ticket.